

Challenge: show off what you have been learning about speech punctuation!

Super Speech

Below is a picture of two superheroes. Using your imagination, write a passage of text – including speech – between the two characters. They could be discussing how to stop an evil villain? How to save the ocean? What powers they have? It's all your idea! Write your passage on the next page and use the checklist below the picture to make sure you have correctly used speech punctuation.

Super Speech

- I have placed " " (inverted commas) around any speech. ☐
- I have included punctuation before the closing inverted commas. ☐
- I have placed a new speaker on a new line. ☐
- I have used reporting clauses to let the reader know who is speaking. ☐
- When starting with the reporting clause, I have used a comma to separate it from the speech. ☐
- I have included said synonyms. ☐
