

English

Imagine you are the Highway Rat. You are going to write a diary for a day when you have been out stealing food from all of the other animals travelling along the highway.

Remember you are the Highway rat so will need to write in first person. For example I was riding my horse along the dusty highway, when...

You will need to include:

Where you were

When it happened

What you did

How you felt.

