What are these words
called?

LO. I am revising contractions

These words are called contractions.

The apostrophe shows where
a letter (or letters) would be if written in full.

The two words are pushed
together.

doesn't
does not

The 'o' is removed and replaced
with an
apostrophe.

LO. I am revising contractions

These words are called
contractions.

The apostrophe shows where
a letter (or letters) would be
if written in full.

I'm

I am

These all
need capital
letters

I'd

I had

because they are constructed
from I

I've

I have

which is a capital letter.

LO. I am revising contractions

These words are called
contractions.

The apostrophe shows where
a letter (or letters) would be
if written in full.

it's → it is → it has

its is also used for the possessive but does not use the apostrophe in the same way.

e.g. The dog was wagging its' tail.

Task 2

Spelling Test

Write the opposite of the version you have been given. Please write the whole paragraph.

I cannot believe Christmas is over for another year. I didn't get to see all of my family like I usually would but it would not have been safe to see too many people. Next year, I hope it'll be different and we can have parties and celebrations again. Maybe I will ask Santa for a big party for Christmas next year.

ANSWERS

Write the contraction:

I will	I'll	would have	would've
they have	they've	does not	doesn't
he is	he's	it is	it's
you are	you're	we are	we're
do not	don't

Write the expanded form:

don't	Do not	he's	He is
what's	What is	where's	Where is
we're	We are	you'll	You will
can't	cannot	I'd	I would

I can't believe Christmas is over for another year. I did not get to see all of my family like I usually would but it wouldn't have been safe to see too many people. Next year, I hope it will be different and we can have parties and celebrations again. Maybe I'll ask Santa for a big party for Christmas next year.
