

Day 3 - Pink English

Task 1

Conjunctions are joining words that link together parts of a sentence. Watch the video below to learn about co-ordinating conjunctions.

Task 2

Here is an example of the middle of a story.

His heart leapt. The umbrella would be perfect! Feeling pleased with himself, Mr Bell ran towards it and snatched it up. The handle was smooth and glossy, and the waterproof dome was black and very large.

As Mr Bell raised it above his head, something remarkable happened. He began to feel lighter as he ran over the cobbled street, holding tight. With a gasp, he realised that his leather shoes were no longer making contact with the pavement. He was flying! The wind lifted him up like hundreds of hands, all pushing upwards.

With a delighted and shocked shout, Mr Bell gazed down at the sprawling city below him. The street lamps looked like beautiful, luminous flowers reaching up to him. Cars reminded him of jewel-coloured beetles crawling through the concrete maze.

The wind led him towards the park. It was the only splash of green in a grey ocean of buildings and roads. Clutching the umbrella tightly, he drifted towards two bronze statues of lions guarding the park entrance. Mr Bell outstretched his free hand and reached towards one. As he passed, he patted it on its' cold head. The lion roared deeply and shook its' impressive mane, whilst watching the small man float past. Wide-eyed, Mr Bell swung himself away. The umbrella swayed dangerously and as he grasped the handle harder, he waited dizzily for the world to stop spinning.

Today, you are going to write the middle of your story about Captain Sir Tom Moore. Use your plan - what characters did you choose? What did you decide would happen to Captain Sir Tom? This will be what you describe in your story.

When you have finished, use the checklist to proof-read your work.

CHECKLIST

- Capital letters for the start of sentences and proper nouns.
- Full stops to show the end of a sentence.
- Sentences all make sense when read out loud.
- An expanded noun phrase.
- A co-ordinating conjunction.
