

Day 1 – TASK 1 ANSWERS

Question	Answer
1	a) There is 1 ten and 8 ones. The number is 18.  b) There are 4 tens and 3 ones. The number is 43
2	a) There are 3 tens and 5 ones. The number is 35  b) There are 4 tens and 0 ones. The number 40  c) There are 2 tens and 9 ones. The number is 29  d) There are 2 tens and 11 ones. The number is 31
3	a) The children can use any pictorial representation to represent 15 There is 1 ten and 5 ones. The number is 15  b) There are 3 tens and 0 ones. The number is 30
4	The children could draw 5 tens and 1 one, or they could draw 4 tens and 11 ones. Many possibilities to total 51
5	The children should circle the representation with 5 tens and 4 ones. Rosie has made the mistake of getting the tens and ones the wrong way around.
6	Amir is thinking of the number 74