

DATE

L.O. I am learning to infer and justify my inferences with evidence.

Listen to Carrie's War Episode 7

Stop at 11:00

On your whiteboard, make notes about Frederick, more specifically any quotes you can use as evidence.

What can you infer from the evidence you have gathered?

Read Carrie's War Extract (p.126-133) and add to your notes about Frederick.

This will help you to:

- develop your understanding of the story.
- understand the extra details that are not in the audiobook.

- Who is Frederick
- What can you infer about him?

What can we infer about Frederick?

Let's discuss:

Who is Frederick?

What can we infer about him?

What evidence do you have?

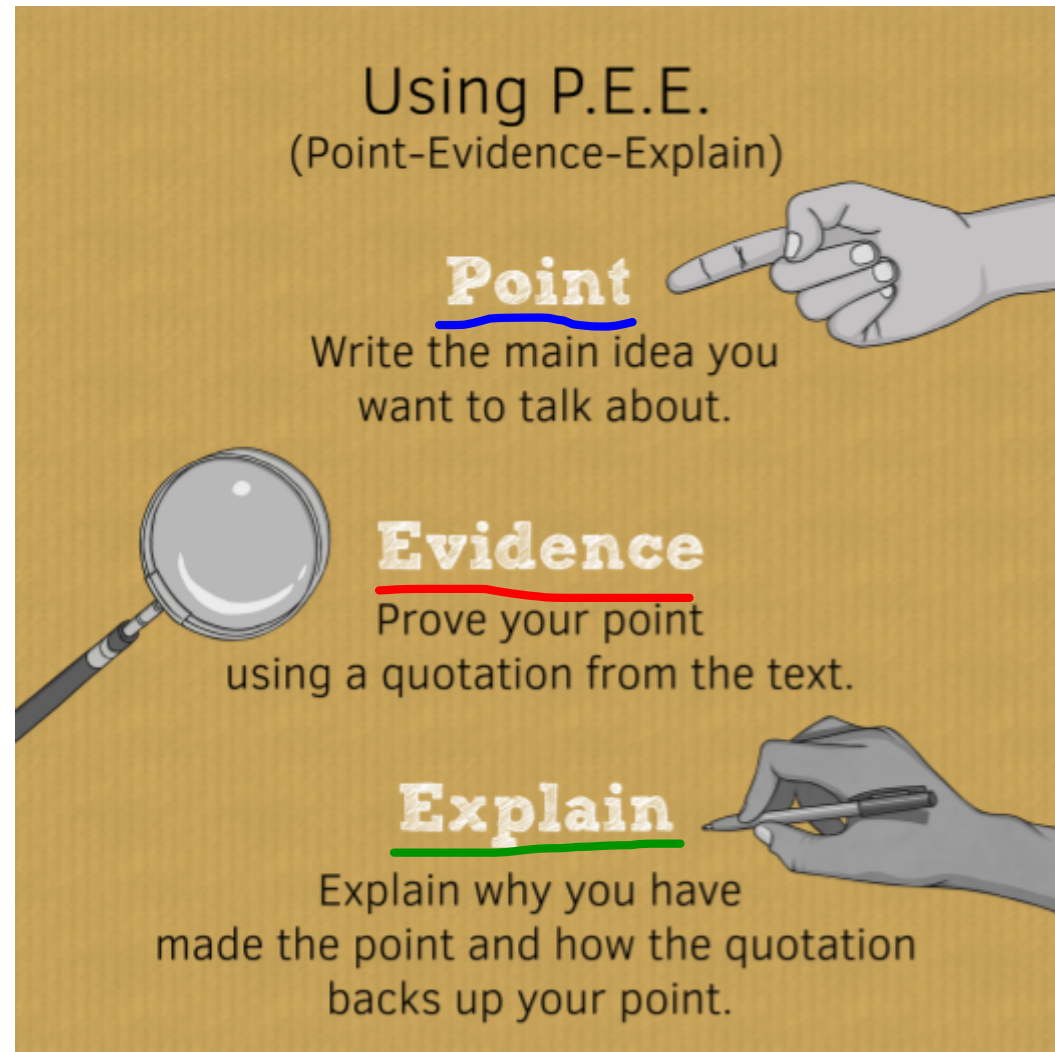

Partner talk your ideas and we will write a paragraph as a class. Copy it into your book.

He slept a lot of the time, either in bed sprawled in the most comfortable chair in the kitchen and snoring loudly with his mouth open.

What can you infer about Frederick from this quote?

I can infer that Frederick is _____ because...

Guided session with Miss Work

Can you find each of these in the answer we just wrote?

Your Turn

1. Discuss the quotes with your partner. What do they each infer?

2. Complete the first question with your teacher on the flipchart. Copy down the answer.

3. Discuss with your teacher what the other quotes could infer.

4. Stick in the quote and write your answer underneath.

1. Stick in the question sheet.

2. Complete the 5 questions underneath.

Find the quotes in the text. This will help you with your inference.

1. Stick in agree/disagree question.

2. Do you agree or disagree? Justify your answer with evidence.

Use PEE to structure your answers. Make sure your explanations are detailed.

Finished?

Once you are finished, read through your answers.
Make sure they make sense and add any extra detail to improve your answers.

Check your:

- Capital Letters
- Spelling
- Punctuation

Extension: What sentence types have you used in your writing?