

LO: I am learning to identify word class.

Read the text below. I have identified words classes. Can you read and correct any errors I have made?

There it stood. The doll. Not just any doll, no...this doll was something very different. It was an identical image of herself: the pale pink gilet, the rosy cheeks, the small button nose, and the grey bobble hat sat upon its head. It stood proudly behind a dusty window in an old run-down shop, of which Alma was sure had been empty just a few minutes earlier.

'Just a few minutes' is an adjective phrase as it tells us about the word empty.
