

LO: I am learning to predict

This half term your English will be focused around the book 'How to be a Viking'.

Today you will predict what the book will be about using the front cover.

Task

1

Your task is to annotate the front cover (this is saved under English worksheet).

You need to think about these questions.

Who is the main character?

Where is it set?

What do you think will happen?

What clues can you find on the front cover?

What type of story will this be?

Do you think you will enjoy the story?

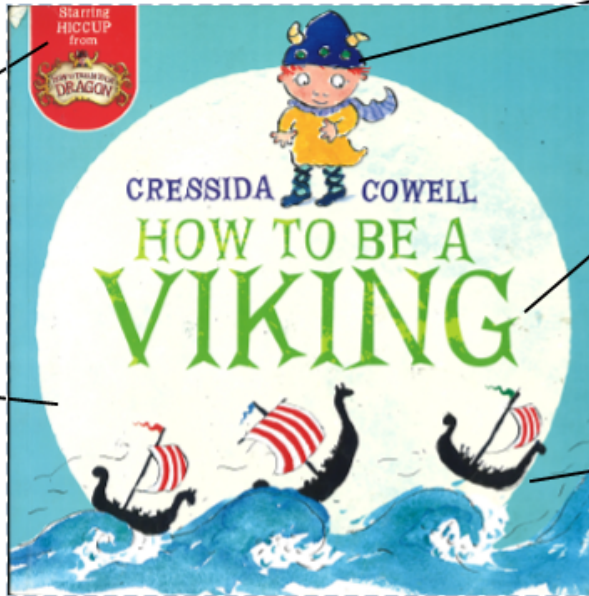

What questions would you like to ask about this story?

Task 1
example

L.O: I am learning to

The title and main character have been done here as an example. They may not be correct so tell me what you think.

The main character is a little boy dressed as a Viking.

The title shows that it is likely to be set in the Viking times and may tell us how Vikings lived.

Task

2

*You will now write your prediction.
Copy and complete the stem sentences on the next slide using the prompts in brackets and your annotations to help you fill in the blanks.*

2

I predict that the story will be set _____ (tell me where it is set) _____. I think the main character, _____ (tell me who the main character is), _____ (tell me what you think they will do in the story) _____. I think this because on the front cover _____ (use the evidence from the front cover to support your prediction).

I think I (will/will not) enjoy this book because _____ (explain why).
