

Answers

1. Use the prepositions in the boxes to complete the sentences below.

in	from	along	above
-----------	-------------	--------------	--------------

The bear gave his bike to an octopus in Spain.

The octopus cycled along the path round the hill.

The seagulls above the town looked down at the octopus.

'Eight handlebars!' shouted the seagulls from the sky.

2.

Use the prepositions in the boxes to complete the sentences below.

through	before	out	to
----------------	---------------	------------	-----------

The road out of town is very bumpy.

The journey to France is very long.

The hours before dawn are quite scary.

The octopus's ride through the woods was not easy.

3. Use the prepositions in the boxes to complete the sentences below.

apart	outside	with	to
--------------	----------------	-------------	-----------

Bikes with eight handlebars are very rare.

Apart from octopuses, nobody rides them.

One morning, I tried to ride one to school.

I gave up right outside my house.

4. Use the prepositions in the boxes to complete the sentences below.

around	in	from	outside
---------------	-----------	-------------	----------------

Imagine an octopus riding a bike around town.

She'd look quite funny in a bicycle helmet.

If you come from Spain, you might have seen an octopus's bike.

Outside Spain, an octopus's bike is a rare sight.

5. Use the prepositions in the boxes to complete the sentences below.

inside	throughout	below	around
---------------	-------------------	--------------	---------------

Octopuses are famous throughout the world for their cycling.

Humans rank below octopuses in the hierarchy of cyclists.

Inside my house, there is a bike with one hundred handlebars.

It must belong to a centipede, because they're the only ones around here with one hundred arms.