

LO: I am learning to understand a historical narrative.

1. Reread the questions on the last two pages of chapter 13. Which questions are rhetorical and which require an answer?
2. Why does Rurik feel guilty about his brother? Is he right to feel like this? Explain your answer.
3. Pick three new words you have learned in these chapters. Write a sentence with them to show you understand each word.
4. What is Viglaf thinking whilst Thorkel tells him their story?
5. Put the following events in order. Label them from 1-5 in the boxes with one being the first.

Thorkel finds Gunnar and Rurik alive.

Gunnar discovers the name of the boat.

Rurik explains he has betrayed his brother.

Viglaf agrees to taking Gunnar, Rurik and Thorkel on-board his boat.

Gunnar begins to free himself from the ropes.
