L.O. I am practising and applying grammar skills that I have been taught this year.

Answer these questions below on your learning from the recap lesson and let your teacher know how you got on!

1. In the sentence below which words are nouns?

Circle the words you think are the right answers.

The puppy barked loudly when it saw the cat sat in the window.

2. In the sentence below which words are adjectives?

Circle the words you think are the right answers.

The shiny, round coin fell under the table and rolled onto the smooth, wooden floor.

3. In the sentence below which words are verbs?

Circle the words you think are the right answers.

At 12 o'clock the bell rang loudly because the children needed to walk to the hall and eat their lunch.

4. In the sentences below which words are adverbs?

Circle the words you think are the right answers.

Mrs Smith walked silently to the school hall with her class carefully following behind her. She led them into the hall quickly and watched them intently to make sure they didn't talk.

5. Which word best joins these ideas below together?

Write the co-ordinating conjunction in the gap.

I wanted the red scarf _____ it was gone.

6. Which word best joins these ideas below together?

Write the sub-ordinating conjunction in the gap.

The jumper is wet _____ it fell in a puddle.

7. Which word best joins these ideas below together?

Write the sub-ordinating conjunction in the gap.

Wash your hands _____ you eat your lunch.

8. Which word best joins these ideas below together?

Write the sub-ordinating conjunction in the gap.

It will warm up outside ____ the sun comes out.

9. Which word best joins these ideas below together?

Write the co-ordinating conjunction in the gap.

I don't know whether to wear my wellies ____ wear my trainers.

10a. Read the sentence and circle the conjunction that is incorrect.

Leo packed his bag for the beach or he forgot to bring his sun cream!

10b. Rewrite the sentence with the correct conjunction.

---

11. Fill in whether these nouns should have 'a' or 'an'.

a. I ate ____ apple during the break.

b. She bought ____ new bicycle yesterday.

c. It takes ____ hour to walk to the station.

d. My brother wants to attend ____ university in Canada.

12. Underline the expanded noun phrases in this paragraph.

High above our Earth, the vast, pitch-black night sky is filled with countless twinkling stars. Suddenly, a giant, silver rocket with powerful engines zooms past the strange, cratered surface of the Moon. Far off in the distance, a mysterious, swirling planet with golden rings spins quietly in the freezing, dark void.