

Day 1 - Pink English Lesson

We have been learning about the life of Captain Sir Tom Moore. This week you are going to write a story about him.

Task 1

Sometimes in stories, people are speaking, this is called dialogue. To start, watch the following video to find out how to use inverted commas (sometimes called speech marks).

Task 2

Write out the following sentences, adding the inverted commas in the correct places.

1. What's for dinner dad? Jacinda asked her dad.
2. The witch looked at her sisters and asked, When will we three meet again?
3. The mouse looked at the fox and quivered, Please don't eat me.
4. I'm stuck! declared Sam as he held up his hand.
Can you help me please?
5. Goal! shouted the boy as the ball went to the back of the net.
6. John, can you hold this? asked Joanne.
7. Off with her head! shouted the Queen of Hearts.
8. The policeman asked, Can I see your licence please?

Task 3

This week you will be writing a story about Captain Sir Tom Moore, so today you will need to plan your story.

Choose a picture from each section below. This will become your plan for your narrative. You could print the pictures and cut out the ones you would like to use, or do a quick sketch of the pictures you would like to use.

Keep this safe because you will need your story plan for the rest of the week.

Characters

Captain Sir Tom Moore will be your main character but would you like any other characters in your story? You could choose more than one if you would like.

Army soldier

Friend at school

Daughter and grandchildren

Setting

This is what you will describe in the opening of your story and where your story will take place.

School (in the 1930s when Captain Tom was young)

Trenches during the war

His daughter's house in Bedfordshire

Middle

This is what will be the main part of the story - what will happen to Captain Sir Tom Moore?

Make a new friend at school or in the army

Raise money to help the NHS

Get an injury from falling

Ending

How will you fix the problem or end the story?

He raises lots of money

His friend will help him

He enjoys playing and exploring with his friend
