

- 1) Once upon a time before there was anything—no people, animals, land or sky—there was a man called Odin (king of the Gods)
- 2) Odin decided he was going to create a land for the Giants .
- 3) With a great roar he created a land of frost and ice. (Jotunheim)
- 4) He breathed gently and a beautiful green world full of trees, flowers and lakes was created. (Midgard)
- 5) He muttered to the trees and created the first man and women—this land was for people.
- 6) He created a sizzling shining city for the Gods that would glimmer in the light of the moon. (Asgard)
- 7) He created a rainbow bridge as a final touch to join the two worlds of Asgard and Midgard.