

L.O. I am learning
to use capital letters
and full stops
(CLaFS)

You have a paragraph.
You need to underline
every sentence with a
different colour.
Extension: Can you
circle the verbs?

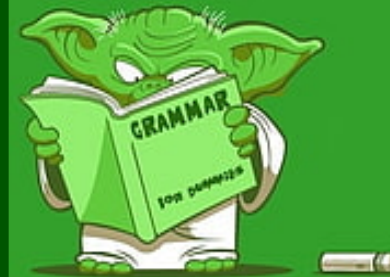

*What is a
sentence?!*

A sentence is a group of words that are put together to mean something. A sentence is the basic unit of language which expresses a complete thought.

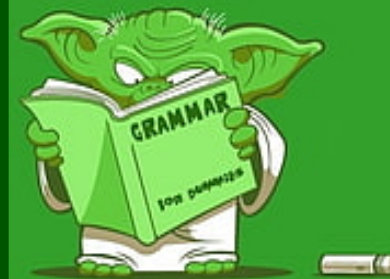

A complete sentence has at least a subject and a main verb to state (declare) a complete thought.

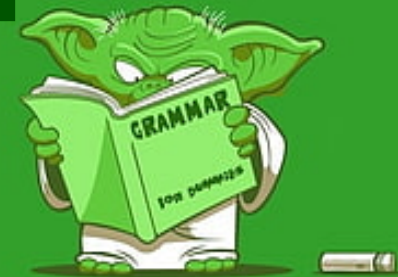

*You use sentences
ALL THE TIME!!*

BUT...

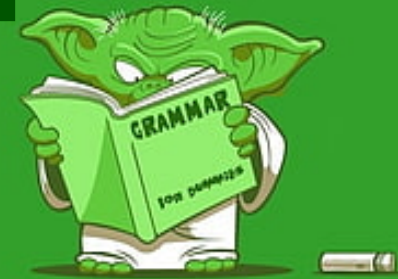

*In a piece of writing,
how can we
recognise where the
end of a sentence is?*

*So what is the
biggest problem when
we are writing rather
than reading?*

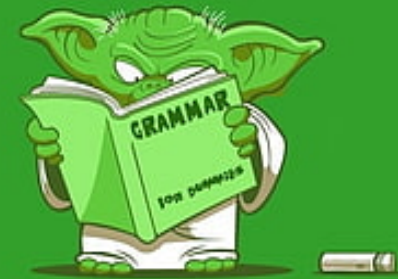

What strategies can
we use to help us
write sentences that
are correct?

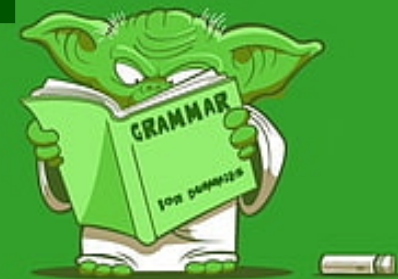

When we write sentences, we should:

- Plan out your complete ideas, your sentences, in your head before you write them. DON'T JUST WRITE!
- Think about where you would breathe
- Consider whether you are changing topic or idea

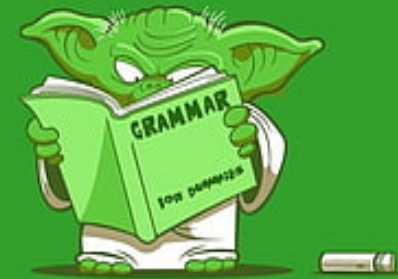

How can we check
that we have put full
stops in the correct
places?

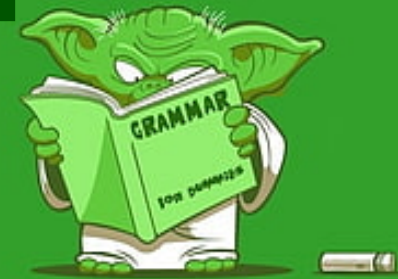

Let's read the next
slide out loud
together and stop
where the full stops
are.

What do you notice?

I'm learning to use full stops but. I don't always use them in the right place I never check. Where they should really go I just put them in anywhere.

*How can we use our strategy and
understanding to correct this?*

Correct as a class

I'm learning to use full stops but. I don't always use them in the right place I never check. Where they should really go I just put them in anywhere.

You have a
paragraph with all
the full stops
removed. You need
to
put them back in
along with the
capital letters!

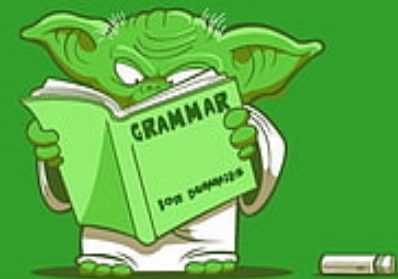

Write it out in your
book.

L.O. I am learning to explore the structure of a sentence.

We are going to mark. Give yourselves 1 point
for every full stop
that you got right.
What's your score?

When we finally arrived at the countryside, there was already bad news. The people at the station looked sad. After some asking around, I found out that one of the local men had died after his Spitfire was shot down. His wife was on the station platform. She had volunteered to take in evacuees like me. I really hope I don't get her. I wouldn't know what to say to her. I've never lost anyone before not like that.

If you got 8 or less, you need to use the paragraph to practice using full stops accurately.

Don't stick the sheets in, you need to rewrite the sentences to also practice handwriting.

If you got 8 or more, you need to uplevel the paragraph.

What do you notice about the original paragraph?
How will you make it better?

Don't stick the sheets in, you need to rewrite the sentences to also practice handwriting.
