

Beyond the Lines

What line is the title referring
to?

Watch to 3.04 minutes.

Complete the response table with your initial thoughts about the video.

LO. I am learning to write a setting description.

Do you have any questions about the story or characters?

What have you learned about the story so far?

Let's hear what you thought.

What do you think about the setting?

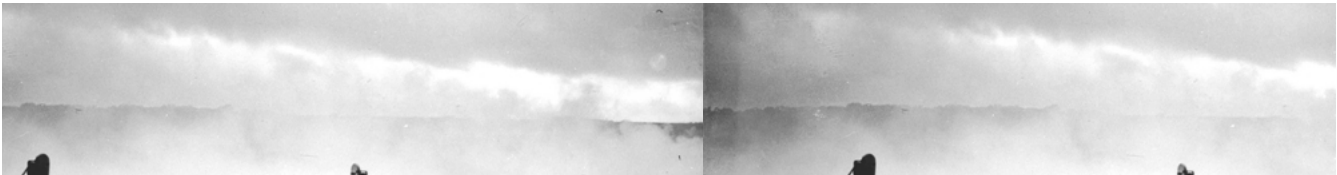

BTL Resource 1a

What are these?

Today you will use these to describe the opening scene of the video.

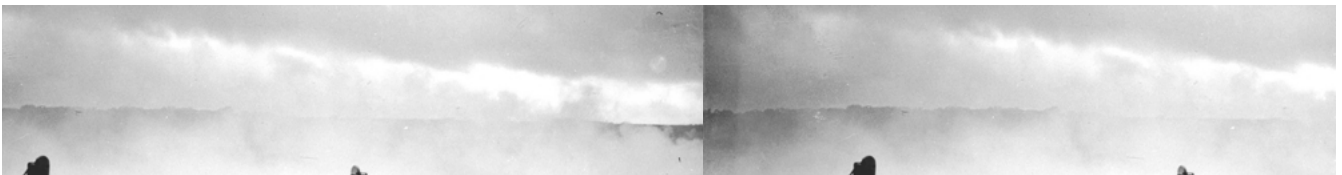

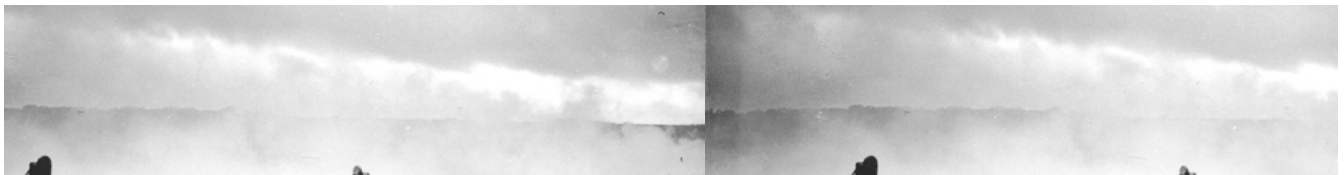

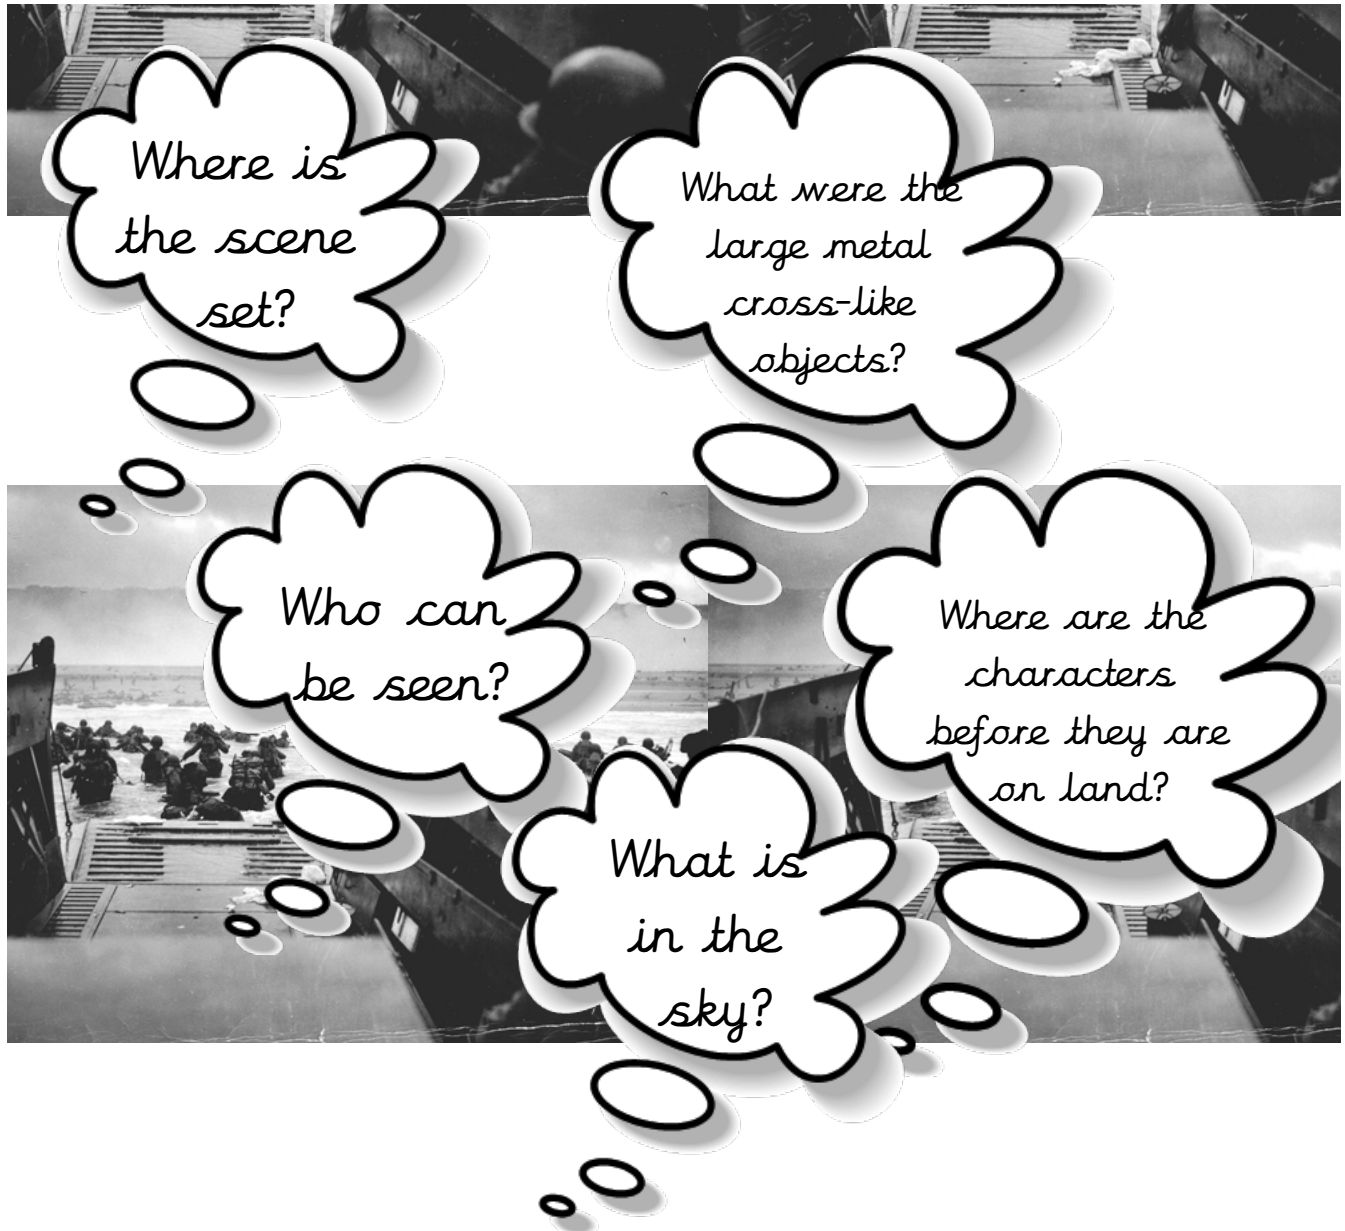

Beyond the Lines

Watch to 1.00 minute.

While you are watching, annotate the image with words and phrases to describe what you see.

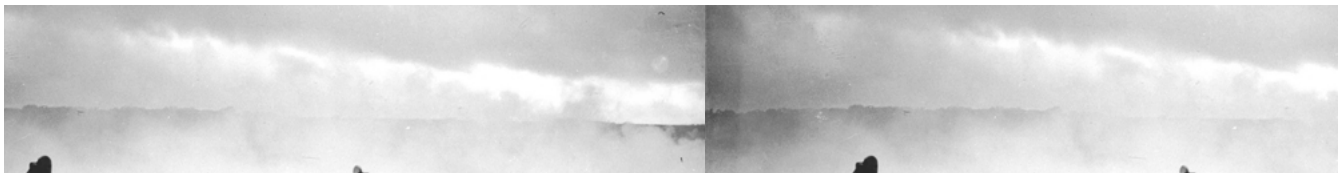

atmosphere	Normandy	Higgins boat	deceased	imagination
catastrophe	camouflage	grandparents	atmosphere	pages
seawater	beret	battle	mortar shell	death
mound	trunk	coils	explosion	barbed wire
soliders	rucksack	barricade	shoreline	military
sand	television	rocking chair	memory	rifle

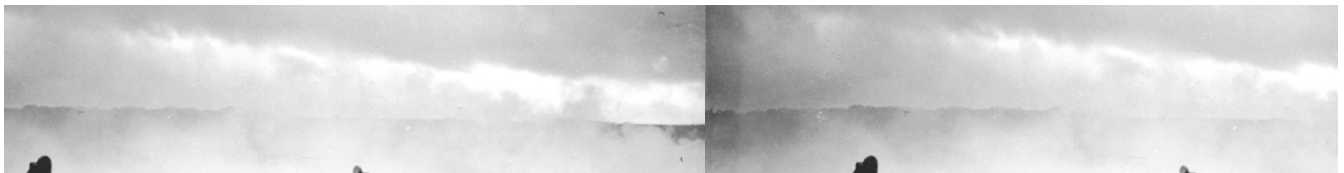

executing detonate scrambling panic collapsing
dismay fear dying envisage exploding crawl imagine slump impacting empathise floundering grasp disembarking feud emerging failing cowering tremble anticipating scamper
wounding linger embrace clambering plunge

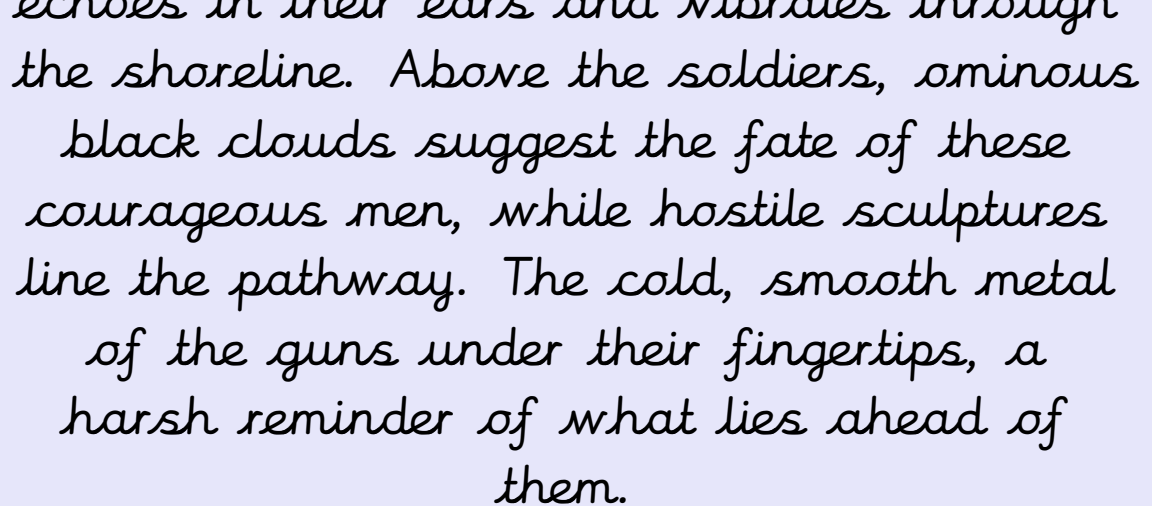

vulnerable inconsolable besieged murderous silent ill-fated devastated chaotic anonymous distressed brave unknown deafening ominous tormented
alarmed fearful wounded courageous tumultuous gallant unknown concealed unscathed deadly precarious motionless helpless doomed bombarded

Read this example of a setting description.
How have the 5 senses been used?

As the Higgins boat crashes onto the beach, the brave soldiers clamber into the unknown. The sound of deafening gun-fire echoes in their ears and vibrates through the shoreline. Above the soldiers, ominous black clouds suggest the fate of these courageous men, while hostile sculptures line the pathway. The cold, smooth metal of the guns under their fingertips, a harsh reminder of what lies ahead of them.

