

What's our target?

fluency

Reading Out Loud

What were our hints and tips from last lesson?

fluency

Hints and Tips

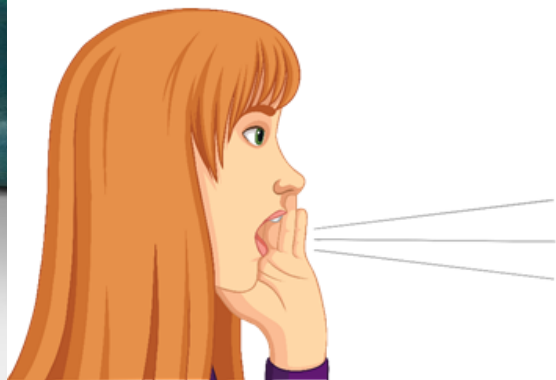

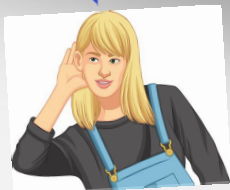

Read with confidence and if you don't feel confident, pretend!

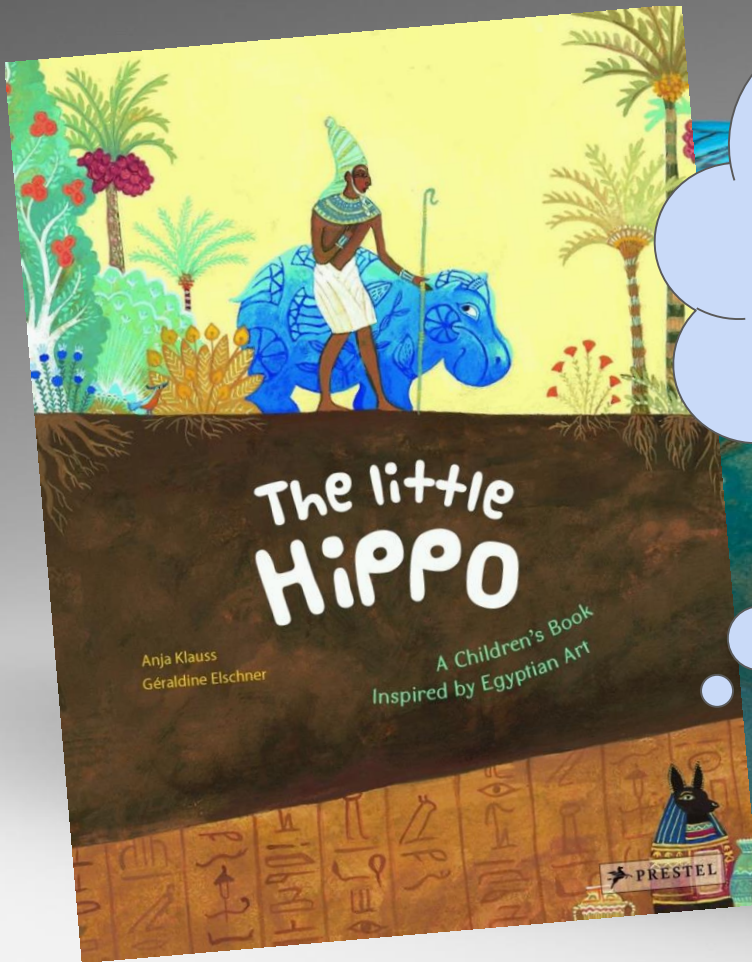

Vary the pace of your voice to make it go faster or slower according to what you are reading.

Change the volume of your voice as needed, from whispering to shouting and all levels in between.

Put expression into your voice and really mean what you read.

fluency

We are going to finish the story today.

Listen as I read.
By now, you should be feeling more confident to read along with me...

A copy of the text can be found in the folder for today's learning.

Now retell the story of the little hippo.

CHALLENGE

IT'S SHOW TIME

Can you use some of the tricky words or new vocabulary from the text as you retell the story?
E.g. the hippos basked in the River Nile.

Order the significant events in the story on the story map.

Little Hippo did not recognise the new world he was in.	Little Hippo spent the rest of his days in the museum with family and friends.
Little Hippo began a long journey and saw how much the world had changed.	Antef Died and he and Little Hippo slept for many years in Antef's tomb.
At the beginning of time, the hippos could be seen basking in the River Nile.	Little Hippo finally found his ancestors.
Archaeologists discovered the tomb and woke Little Hippo.	Little Hippo became friends with Antef.

Mark your work...

L.O. I am learning to show that I understand what I have read.

At the beginning of time, the hippos could be seen basking in the River Nile.

Little Hippo became friends with Antef.

Antef Died and he and Little Hippo slept for many years in Antef's tomb.

Archaeologists discovered the tomb and woke Little Hippo.

Little Hippo did not recognise the new world he was in.

Little Hippo began a long journey and saw how much the world had changed.

Little Hippo finally found his ancestors.

Little Hippo spent the rest of his days in the museum with family and friends.