What do these words mean?
Why is it important for us to learn about these in school?

Spiritual: You will explore this mostly in RE and some assemblies. You will explore other's beliefs, faiths and experiences and be respectful to them. You can begin to learn about yourself and others in the surrounding world as well as reflect on your thoughts. Use your imagination and creativity.

Moral: You can recognise the difference between right and wrong. You know that you must respect the law and understand the consequences. You may begin to investigate moral and ethical issues and discover what you believe through listening to others opinion and begin to give your own.

Social: In school you get to develop your social skills and communicate with people in your class. You will participate in the local community and help others for example give to charities. Volunteer, cooperate and resolve conflict. Appreciate different opinions and engage with the British values.

Cultural: You will explore different cultures and understand and appreciate differences. You will understand democracy and the British Parliamentary system. Understand, accept, respect and celebrate diversity.

L.O. I am learning to begin describing how the concept of 'good and evil' relates to my life and affects the lives of Hindus.

Context: Holi

At the beginning...

What do you think "good' and 'evil' means?

What do they make you think of? How do they make you feel?

I think good means...

I think evil means....

These words make me think of...

They make me feel...

Let's share our thoughts and experiences of good and evil.

Do we agree with our class mates?

Do we disagree with our class mates?
(It's okay to disagree with them!)

L.O. I am learning to begin describing how the concept of 'good and evil' relates to my life and affects the lives of Hindus.

Good means:

1. Something that is nice, pleasant or enjoyable.
2. Someone who is kind and honest.
3. Behaving well and not doing anything naughty.
4. Doing something well.

Evil means:

Something that is wicked and cruel. It could happen by a human.

What do you think about these definitions?
Do you think they are right?
Do you disagree?

When has good and evil things happened in your life?

What good and evil have you seen in the news?
