Peacefully, the crisp, white snowflakes tumbled towards the earth.

Alma tried her best to dart and dodge in between each flake, causing her to bounce all over the cobbled path.

Her pale pink coat was the colour of her rosy cheeks and her small button nose.

Rested on her head, sat a grey bobble hat – warm and snug.

This young girl had not a care in the world as her arms waved about playfully as she continued to skip through the falling snow.
