

Task Answers

1. What does it mean to be a 'stranger in the dark'?

She likes to hide in the shadows.

2. Who are 'they' mentioned in the second line?

This may refer to society in general, or her family

3. What punctuation marks have been used to show speech?

Inverted commas

4. What are her 'broken parts'?

She believes her broken parts to be the parts of her that make her different.

5. Can these be fixed?

Some things that are broken can be fixed but they sometimes cannot be forgotten

6. What does the word 'ashamed' mean?

It means to feel embarrassed or humiliated.

7. What are her scars?

All the things that make her different.

8. Why has she used the word scars?

Scars are something that could last a lifetime.

9. Why does she use the word 'dust' when talking about breaking her down?

To create something you have to crush something so much and it then just disappears into nothing?

10. What is the word 'us' an example of?

Pronoun.