L.O. I am learning to say animals in French.

So far this year you have learned some important things that you need to speak French. Spend some time revising these things before you move onto the final lessons and by the end, you should be able to read 'The Very Hungry Caterpillar' in French.

Match the English and French words together to make them disappear, how quickly can you clear the deck?

L.O. I am learning to actively listen to a story in French.

Now that you have revised lots of vocabulary, you are going to start to read a story. I just want you to listen to the story to begin with. Can you hear any words that you are familiar with? Think about how impressed everyone will be when they know you can read this story.
