

Reading - Lesson 2

Last lesson, we revisited the key events that happened in episode 4 of Carrie's War. Today we are going to be thinking about how the character's felt within this section of the story. This will be good practise for our retrieval and inference skills. You may want to re-listen to episode 4 and take some notes to refresh your memories!

- What did you notice about how Carrie's feelings changed during this episode?
- What was she feeling at the beginning and why?
- How did she feel on the way home? What had changed to make her feel this way?

Task:

Download the worksheet from the website.

Look at the key parts in the text and write down how you think Carrie would have felt at each point. Please try to use evidence from the story to support your thoughts and ideas.

Challenge: Can you support your point with more than one piece of evidence?
