

Winter Rhyming Poem

- Think about a winter-related item that you feel you can write a poem about.
- Think about words that link to your winter-related item.
- Create rhyming groups of three or four based on the words you've chosen. Use a rhyming dictionary if you have access to one.
- Choose your rhyme scheme and use your groups to create a poem. Be prepared to change the rhyme scheme if you need to!
- Don't worry about syllables too much.
- Remember – words with different spellings can rhyme.

A large rectangular area with a purple border, containing 15 horizontal lines for writing a poem.